

The Reverend Samuel May

Samuel Hall.

ms. B.1.6 v.13. p.6

Dear Mr May

I send you by the Fair box a purse I have been knitting for you which I hope you will like, I wish that it were prettier, but is a very fashionable purse at present. which is its chief merit.

I was very glad that you will see me at the office, I think with great pleasure of my visits there and wish I could repeat them.

I have not yet been to the Italian Opera to hear Versiani but I hope to go very soon. I heard

Miss and Jenny Lind in London and was greatly delighted.

I think very often of our visit to you at Leicester and how much we enjoyed it. All our party join me in best love to yourself and Mrs May.

I remain truly
your friend
Elizabeth B. Chapman
